

My hometown

- seminary writing-

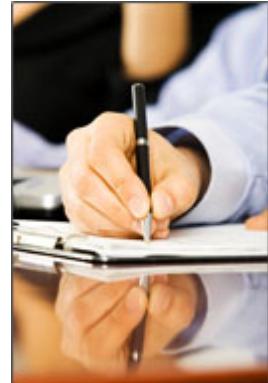

My hometown is Gradiška. It's placed in northwestern part of Bosnia and Herzegovina, along right bankside of river Sava. Apart from the Sava, which is navigable in this area, the Municipality is also rich in mountain brooks the largest of which are Vrbaška, Jablanica, Jurkovicica, and Lubina. Sole town is pretty old. It dates back to times of Roman Empire and it was mentioned as Servitium. Later on, the town was called Gradiški brod and had a major importance in crossing over Sava. Municipality of Gradiška counts about 68 000 of people, while core of the city count about 21 000 of people. It has good connections with neighbour towns like Laktaši, Banja Luka, Srbac, Kozarska Dubica, and also with crossing places over Sava - Stara Gradiška, Nova Gradiška, Zagreb etc. The road network includes 700 kilometers of district and principal roads and 70 kilometers of trunk roads that via Gradiška lead towards the eastern parts of the Republic of Srpska and Banja Luka, and northwards towards the Central and Western Europe. Few town's cultural monuments that should be mentioned are Kulturni Centar, which was burnt to the ground several years ago and arose again in it's full glory 2 years ago, then there is and orthodox church, building of old municipality's building and a big monument to fallen soldiers from WWII and lately civil war. There are 2 schools, 3 high schools, and one college in the town. Cultural initiators are mainly "KUD Kolovit", "Gradski Hor Lira", "Skomrah Gal Orchestra" and local music bands like "Alter Ego", "Deveti Krug", "Anagram", "Triple Shot". Gradiška is located at an altitude of 92 m above sea level, its fertile Lijevcanska Plain lies at an average altitude of 110 meters above sea level, while certain villages in the hilly area are situated as high as 300 meters above sea level. Some of the villages are Nova Topola, Podgradci, Karajzovci, Petrovo Selo, Kočićevo and so on... The favorable climatic, continental conditions and the geographic position, rich forest heritage of Kozara and Prosara Mounts, the fertile Lijevice Plain and parts of Posavina (i.e. the valley of the Sava river), suitable hilly arable land, deposits of diabase stone, rich deposits of marble in Prosara, navigability of the Sava river, and other advantages, have influenced the development of numerous productive branches of the economy, primarily of the primary agricultural production, foodstuffs and wood industries, and others. Most notable production factories in Gradiška are „Levita“, „Metal“, „Standard“, „Inga“, „Drvena Industrija Podgradci - DIPO“, „Jelšingrad“ etc. Large number of clubs, night clubs, cafe bars and other amusement places are spots which attract younger population to Gradiška. „Irish Pub ?“, „British House“, „Black & White“, „Vitez“, area of Sava's jetty and many other are locations of jollification.
